CASE STUDY - MARY

A client we will call “Mary,” who is a senior citizen, had snap-in dentures that were damaged when she went to the dentist’s office for a routine cleaning. The dentures were broken when the dentist attempted to drill the dentures to make them fit better. Afterwards, the dentures were not usable, and Mary could not afford the $2,800 for a new set of dentures. This is when Mary contacted Legal Aid for help. Attorney Linda Hall took the case and sent a demand letter to the dentist for payment for new dentures, and the dentist sent Mary $2,800 to pay for new dentures. When asked how Legal Aid’s help changed her life, Mary responded, “The financial recovery was the essential requirement that would allow me to have a more satisfactory dental procedure.”

“I don’t know what I would do without your support.”
